

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

L.E. f/k/a B.K. (Legal Father), Petitioner,

v.

State of Alaska, DHSS, OCS, Respondents.

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-18-00602CN

Supreme Court No. S-18113

Notice of Deficiency

Date of Notice: 6/10/21

On 6/4/21, documents were received in the Appellate Clerk's office. The above appellate case number has been assigned for tracking purposes only. Please use this case number and case caption on any future correspondence or filings in this case. Also, please use initials for all parties on filings instead of full names, because this is a confidential child-in-need-of-aid proceeding.

It appears that L.E. is attempting to file a petition for review of Judge Ramgren's 5/26/21 order for paternity testing; however, no action can be taken on this petition and the case cannot be opened for the following reasons:

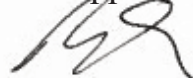

- No petition for review was filed. A petition for review is a 15-page or less written document containing your arguments as to why the superior court's order is erroneous. A copy of the rules regarding petitions for review and a sample of a petition for review are being sent to L.E. with this notice.
- No Supreme Court docketing statement B was filed. A blank copy of this form is being sent to L.E. with this notice.
- No certificate of service showing that all parties were served. Under Appellate Rule 514(a), all documents file with the appellate courts shall be served upon all other parties. All parties listed in the distribution list on this notice must be served with all documents that are filed.

- No payment for the $250.00 filing fee was provided, nor was an application for an exemption from the filing fee provided. Under Alaska Statute 09.19.010, a prisoner may not commence litigation against the State unless the prison pays the full filing fee or applies for a filing fee exemption. If L.E. wishes to apply for a filing fee exemption, he must file an application for exemption from filing fee, a financial statement affidavit, and a prisoner account summary for the preceding six-month period. A blank application form and financial statement affidavit form are being sent to L.E. with this notice.

If the required documents or a motion to extend time are not received on or before 6/24/21, this file may be CLOSED.
